To explain the documents purpose for those who get sent this, this is a complaints box for a person in The Cloud Palace you guys want to be removed, the person will not see the document, so this is essentially a place for anonymous complaints. However, what I will say is the person in question will get a warning, and be notified of these complaints, if they keep it up, they will be removed.

cracks knuckles okay everyone welcome to coming to my TED Talk about "Sketchumus FuckCunTERous" Allow me to start my presentation

Now I'mma keep my own personal complaints to myself as I understand his bullshit about Episode 52 or [Redacted] doesn't 100% relate to The Cloud Palace I guess, tho people who know about either will agree the second could be argue to add to how uncomfortable Sketch makes it being in Cloud Palace.

Lets start with my bigger complaint extends pointer stick Sketch has on several occasions, seen absolutely no problem with bullying kids for the awful crime of being wrong on the internet low quality violin shock music with 25% distortion First of all, the Umbrus bullshit he pulled in Mavi's server, her PUBLIC server I wanna add. Like sure, I disagreed with Umbrus on a certain level that we just shouldn't call out Frozen Angel despite the fact the fucker spams gore at people. But the second Umbrus goes "don't give him attention that's what he wants", Sketch fucking starts saying that Umbrus is trying to say that we shouldn't call out pedophiles preying on children, the KKK lynching black people or Nazis. Like it wasn't remotely what Umbrus brought up and it comes off like he only brought that shit up to make Umbrus feel bad for DARING to call out his fucking 2nd boyfriend Jonah. I wanna remind y'all by the way UMBRUS IS 12 YEARS OLD!!!

Good job Sketch, being a condescending cunt for the purpose of having the mental superiority over a god dang 12 year old, like really? Are you that insecure about your penis size? I mean it's not like it's small or anything, I'd know you sent it to me without my consent. Sketch has this dumbass mentality that if someone has a mentality, they believe that mentality in literally any other context ever, which is a really fucking stupid mental state to have because gee Sketch, it's almost like some situations call for certain action and others call for other actions. Like holy shit is Sketch REALLY the commentator people are saying is the next Youngblood? I mean sure if you based it entirely off of Youngblood worse comms from when he first started.

The other instance, if yall saw the shit yesterday, was with Frosty Bomb. Like sure the kid was being a fucking nuisance, whatever, but the kid was also an 11 year old and the blow up Sketch had at him is the type of shit you'd expect ANOTHER 11 year old to have. Like sure call the kid out, do what you want, but if you're gonna be a cunt, then fucker YOU'RE the problem. If an 11 year old spills chocolate milk on you by accident, are you gonna shame HIM and treat him like garbage in front of a large group of people? If so, holy shit Sketch never have kids, not that anyone would wanna procreated with your dumbass genes, but I digress. Doesn't help that, EVEN AFTER EVERYONE WAS TOLD TO DROP IT, he is S T I L L bringing it back up in the drama chat so he can have "the last say in it". Holy shit Sketch get fucking bent you failed abortion.

Who did I tell at yesterday when they were saying that I was in the wrong because I got a tad too heated towards someone who's 12?

Last I remember people were trying to call me names somewhat when I was being understandable and was open to the idea of me being in the wrong

I get that at times I can get a bit heated but the thing is, is that when I do, it's NOT for trivial at best reasons

Hell even one time in Mavi's server where I had a slight blowup on Umbrus Mavi understood 100% where I came from and she would've been fine if it were directed at someone older but not Umbrus as he is only 12 as well

And even then when she heard how I was talking she knew I just typed quickly

And I was very calm about the situation

So as of recent what would really show anything that would make Lorenzo think I'm a dick?

3 instances

1 where I was entirely in the wrong and I made up for it showing great remorse and both parties got over it

And 2 others where people understood 100% where I was coming from and just told me that maybe I should be lighter next time

And even though the second time I was to a crazy degree people still demonized me for it

And it was dropped because we didn't care about it in the grand scheme of things

(You can check in drama alert, these are Sketch's messages. You can also tell it's him because he words his statements in a way that makes me wish I never told him to not leave the CC.)

Like this stupid fucker just DOESN'T LIKE being told he might be wrong, like sure nobody does usually, but Sketch will treat you like garbage and talk down to you if you even THINK he might be wrong. He is a spineless, obnoxious little bitch and the day he gets thrown out is the day I'm throwing a fucking party. As soon as he's gone, I'm blocking him and never talking to him again (Update: Just got done blocking him again, holy shit having him on my contacts pisses me off and if he stays there im gonna say some mean shit imma regret later).

Oh and don't get me started on the shit towards Ward, poor fucker just says "I think we should try to talk things out more" and Sketch starts being a little fucking bitch about it "oh u can't act like this'll solve every situation (YKNOW DESPITE THE FACT WARD NEVER SAID THAT)" "Oh you can't say we're shit cuz we don't (POINT ME WHERE SKETCH SAID THAT)"

Sketch. Is a fucking. Idiot.

Also I can't be the only one who thinks Sketch made Jonah a worse person

Slayer on the other hand never stopped being an obnoxious cunt

But I digress

YO AND CAN WE TALK ABOUT HOW HE HARRASSES KUNG?

Like sure, Kung is not entirely in the right but https://twitter.com/search?f=tweets&vertical=default&q=%40sketch_tb%20%40elimuller20&src=typd

Look up "@sketch_tb @elimuller20" and you'll find fucking pages upon pages of Sketch instigating with Kung constantly, ALL THE WAY BACK TO FUCKING DECEMBER 8TH, 2017

AND REFUSES TO FUCKING DROP IT!

Not to mention one in particular, is Sketch using these super edgy pictures of Lycanroc

Let's blame others for my own faults because I can't admit to fault!

Cuz' that worked so well for Keemstar right guys?

Like holy fuck, ARE YOU FUCKING ORIONBROADCAST?

https://youtu.be/V_XbPJ3TyCk?t=47s 0:47 - 0:51

Wow, a guy who is a cunt to people who disagree with him and tries to do everything to intimidate his foes out of the argument. SOUND FAMILIAR SLAYER? OH BUT IT'S OKAY WHEN SKETCH DOES IT BECAUSE HE'S NOT A BANDWAGON LIKE ORION WAS, SHUT THE FUCK UP SLAYER YOU DUMB FUCKING CUNT!

So in conclusion, I can't stand sketch, he's a fucking baby bitch who lacks a spine and I probably won't be at all active in Cloud Palace until that fucker is fucking gone

Good day, thank you for coming to my TED Talk.

I genuinely hate how Sketch can never admit that he's fucked up. Like, the only time I've ever seen him say that he made any kind of mistake, it was buried under mountains and mountains of "well I was right about this" and "oh well I'm so nice to everyone and humble." Like, for fuck's sake dude, you aren't a fucking deity. Oh, and word of advice, public masturbation IS illegal, cause surprise surprise, showing people your dick without anyone wanting is fucking stupid, metaphorically and literally. Also, for fuck's sake, just stop with kung or stick it in his ass, because you haven't shut your fucking mouth about how much you hate him in 120000 years.

Sketch can be pleasant to talk to, at times, however the amount of times lately I can count that were just pleasant to be around him are none. Whenever I talk to him, there's an aura of just, "stay away from him." Or whatever. Can't really describe it.

Even when he's not debating about something as simple as Pokémon, he's malicious in general. He has to be right, even when he's wrong seemingly. The more I talk to him the more awkward it is for me and uncomfortable for me to see him around Jonah in specific. The people around him make it seem like he's in a hug box.

When debating with Sketch, we ALWAYS go full circle. He has to be higher and higher, and everyone around him has to agree because he's Sketch TB. I just wish he'd admit when he's wrong, and avoid going the circle. Because at that point we know he's not accepting our criticism, or he's just not going to listen. And with a chat like the Cloud Palace, we need to listen to each other. Even if it's something as simple as Pokémon.

Generally speaking, his ego really gets to me as well. Like okay, go on and brag about things you've done. But don't go around thinking you have done something amazing and should be more respective. And no I don't believe you when you say you think you shouldn't be put on a pedestal when you need to stroke your dick. All. The. Time. Like let's think about Dillin Thomas. You believe and parade around the idea that YOU stopped Dillin. Sure I appreciate it if you did, but just mentioning you had a Skype convo and had the rights to his channel isn't enough for me to believe that you yourself did it. I'd only believe you had a role at most.

I've seen you less as someone I want to debate with, because what you seem to be focused on more is intimidating them out of debating. Kung is evidently SCARED of you, and yet you go on and continue to harass him for the crime of making bad videos and wanting to make it out there.

The way you treat children in the community fucking blows as well. Umbrus and Frosty Bomb are a perfect example of this as well. You're a cunt to them because they annoyed you seemingly, and you wrongfully blew up at them. It needs to stop. NOW. They are kids and they DO NOT KNOW BETTER. You'd think that it'd be best to NOT yell at them.

OOF BUT IT GETS EVEEEEEEEEEEN BETTER

This isn't to bash him or anything. It's to get all of my issues out there and be done with him. Hell if I finish the script on him here, I'm not even doing a co-op with Jonah. Just because someone fears me doesn't matter to me. I will cover them either way. I'm not even going...

I'M SORRY, EXCUSE ME SKETCH???

WE ADVISED YOU TO STOP COMMENTATING ON KUNG BECAUSE OF OUR OWN REASONS. ONE IN SPECIFIC BEING FEAR. AND YOU GO AHEAD AND SAY YOU DON'T CARE IF HE'S SCARED. AND THEN GO AHEAD AND ADDRESS OUR ISSUES ABOUT IT IN A CUNTY ATTITUDE. YOU SEEM TO ONLY CARE ABOUT BEING RIGHT. EXCUSE ME???? YOU'RE A FUCKING CUNT SKETCH.

This has been my bed balk. Good night.

Allow me to say that I try to forgive most of the stuff Sketch does. And I mean really, it's hard to make me mad to you. Like super, duper, one-of-a-kind, gotta-be-a-snowflake, Marcus Yamamoto mad. But overtime, Sketch definitely has gotten on my nerves. I mean for one, it's hard to debate with him. One time when we're discussing something the argument just kept going in circles. Like to the point where I started to sing ring around the rosy to try and get the point across "can't you stop going in circles this is fucking annoying." I also remember when everyone was discussing how Torterra could be a good starter, and it was tiring seeing Sketch trying to keep the high ground to the point where he started to show how stupid he was at competitive Pokemon (I mean really, Trick Room for a mon designed to be a tank? Sure, that's a good idea to not focus on the Pokemon's strength as a tank). And do not get him started on the whole Frosty situation, good lord I would be here all day! Look, I get that Frosty maybe did a bad, but that is no excuse for treating an 11-year-old like that. HE IS 11. The kid sadly isn't gonna know any better. Hasn't your mom told to that "there is a way to speak to certain people." I mean Sketch is a teen, maybe an adult? I would expect you to act like an adult, an not as a manchild on the likes of Josh and Lily recently. For geez sake, Sketch how about you for once act like your fucking age. Cause no one's gonna tolerate that behavior, and trust me when I say that I will not stand for that as both a person, and someone who has Autism and as such has to learn how to interact with people to seem normal and reasonable.

Thank for coming to my TED talk. Good night.

ACTUALLY WE AIN'T DONE YET SKETCH! NO, I'VE JUST GOT THE WHIP OUT FOR YOU NAUGHTY BOY! So let me get this straight, Fyro asks you to chill with the commentary on Kung cause Kung has actually now gotten a fear of the CC and you due to the comms on him. And you response with you don't give a fuck. Sketch, buddy, what the actual fuck. Do you honest-to-god lack that much compassion to maybe lay off the dude for a sec and let him know that you aren't some big, bad rabbit-trying-to-be-a-jackal trying to smite him? No. This is why the CC was so bad last year. This lack of compassion is honestly what cause the people outside of the CC to fear us. We were all rabid dogs trying to murder one another without taking the time to think "Hey wait, we are all humans. So let's to understand one another and our current positions mental, emotional, or otherwise.” Honest to god, Jonah thinks / am Infinite? Cause I believe I’m stronger than the jackal I’ve met here. Honestly, step on a lego Sketch!

stop.

Sketch is a nice person to speak with at times. I truly mean that. However, the amount of times I’ve seen him make questionable statements, get into needless arguments (the time he flipped out over Doodle suggesting that he remove a very tiny portion of his Pink Robot script, because he was about to argue something that she didn’t actually say), or just behaving in a very spiteful, harsh manner has reached the point to where I had to say something. I’ve clued in on some interesting details about how he argues with people over the last week or so, namely how he treats people in these debates. Icyllya and Umbrus gave off some red flags, though his treatment of Frosty Bomb and justification for it really set me off. I don’t think Sketch is bad, and I hope he is able to keep these bad habits in check. But if these issues persist then I don’t know how comfortable I am with speaking to him about anything, let alone getting in an argument with him.

Sketch, I don’t hate you, but goddamn I’m pretty damn close to. You are one of the most obnoxious people to have an argument with, mainly because you absolutely refuse to listen to any argument that says you’re doing something wrong and/or said something stupid. Remember that back and forth me and several people had over your retarded reasoning for wanting to quit commentaries? You know, the reasoning being that you don’t want other people to view friends of yours as bad content creators because of your commentaries? You know, even when you’re not obligated to commentate on people if you don’t want to?

Oh, but you want your friends to realize their mistakes and sometimes simply telling them isn’t as clear as doing a comm on them you say? Hey, remember when I suggested that you simply make the comm unlisted and send it to only the target? Yet you refused to go with that because “it’s overkill”. It was becoming completely clear that you just wanted to complain about something no matter how easy of a problem it was to solve. In fact, here’s a comic that perfectly describes that situation.

DWLTURD.COM

Let's tone it down a bit with more minor issues that I have with you. Like how your criticisms of videos can be some of the most unhelpful and pettiest things ever. "You should only use 1 form of Freeza as an avatar. There's a huge difference between Mecha Freeza and Final Form Freeza" (even though Mecha Freeza is literally just Freeza's final form but a cyborg, so the fuck are you on about?)

"You don't link the sources to the pages that have the dates of movie releases you show screenshots from" But...why would I need to? The screenshot is what's important, not the whole page.

Then there's stories I heard about how creepy you could be, primarily how you sent an unsolicited dick pic to somebody out of the blue.

But now, let's get to the main reason this document exists. How much of an unlikable, hostile, Grade-A tool you can act like when you argue with or about somebody you dislike. That retarded apples to oranges comparison of "you're saying we shouldn't call out pedophiles preying on children or people committing hate crimes" in response to Umbrus telling you to chill out and not give Frozen attention over his dislike bomb on your comm on him (and don't pretend it was the gore spam he did in the past that was your motivation. You were aware of Angel's gore spam for months before the dislike bomb, but never made a big deal out of it) was incredibly childish.

You know what else is childish? Unapologetically harassing an 11 year old when you can simply ignore and block them or reason with them rather than flipping your shit and acting like a child yourself while a public stream is going on. But hey, your arguments against Frost themselves weren't wrong, so I guess that somehow counters people's point about you acting childish about it, right Sketch?

And let's not forget how you decided to try and continue the argument even after everybody agreed to drop it. 'Cause yeah, that sure as hell isn't obnoxious.

And the cherry on top is how goddamn egotistical you are. "If it's about being influential, I took down the alt (even though the Alt continued to make videos after your comm on them, and the reason they removed most of their vids and haven't made anything recently is due to Darkscythe taking the helm back and him being unsatisfied with how the Alt ran) and Dillin, so why is BOP ignoring me?" As a guy who believes that BOP is ran awfully, can you not use that as an excuse to wave your dick around?

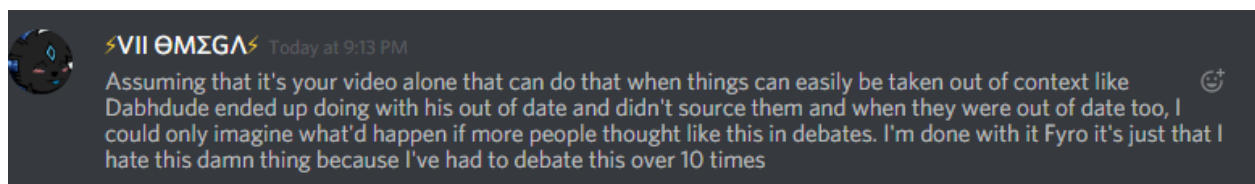

I'm not gonna deny that I view you as a good commentator, but if you think that alone will prevent you from being kicked if you don't stop acting like an obnoxious hostile shithead, you'll be very disappointed.

Ehhh.... What could I say at this point...

There's the situations with Umbrus and Frosty Bomb showing he's willing to go and bully 12 and 11 yrs for the sake of mental superiority. Along with a similar case on SuperSonicWard in the chat. There's the fact that Sketch will actively go and still commentate and bug someone unfamiliar with the community over and over, even to the point of that person (being Kung E. Muller) fearing him, and still wanting to continue regardless, there's the case with him having both this inferiority and superiority complex with him saying that "Oh no, guys my videos are actually not good" yet still trying to reach that bar of superiority in conflicts. Sketch in discussions often dragging things out to where the conversation comes full circle multiple times, and some stuff lately, a reaffirmation of his snappiness and refusal to drop topics.

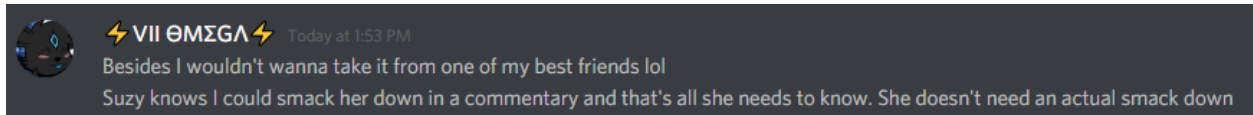

Take it from a part one night where apparently he and Slayer were arguing about Evidence being shown in a video, and at first, some outside people joined into the conversation, but eventually when the conversation was starting to go in Circles and starting to get unpleasant on Sketch's end, with repeatedly calling Slayer "Mr.Lazy", someone asked the conversation at least be moved to drama as it was held in the General chat.

And a few minutes later

A wall of Text just continuing the argument further. Like dude, you really can be insecure sometimes about whether or not a conversation is dropped or not. Oh yeah and there was a second incident the next day where after Sketch and a few others are going on about something, and with that, we get this little gem.

Why geez Sketch, maybe saying something that condescending about a supposed “best friend” about how you can totally take her down in a commentary like you think it’s a game. Just raising yourself on a pedestal like that am I right.

You know I love how Vii or sketch goes about how he wants to better himself as a person on twitter and discord yet continues to do the same shit that fucking putting him in the currently strained relationship he is in now with friends like me. Like what I say on the cloud palace chat was fucking pathetic like vii was it so important for you to argue with slayer over about the quality of messengers comm on you in such a salty bitch way. Cuz sorry honey but you ain't looking like the better person here.

So overall I'm sorta shook on if I can even trust vii's words on if he will actually change or not. Like I don't want to cut off ties with him since he can be a fun person to talk too at times but geez when vii gets livid then that's when his brain goes off. Now the other people involved with Vii's bs are also at fault like slayer and fyroforvictory for instance since they too can act like brain dead twits. But despite those instances vii always comes out looking like the worser person. So screw his words that hold no weight, I genuinely feel like that guys ass needs to get kicked to the curb. Since maybe then he'll finally get the message that he's nothing more then the next zerarick.

This has been ted talks and I hope you have a wonderful day. Although vii can fuck off though.

Sketch/Vii makes me incredibly uncomfortable. He's rude and inconsiderate. I feel like garbage when I talk to him. He says I'm a friend to him but says Oh I'll only make videos on you if you're bad. Like, I don't care about the videos part, but it's how he says it. He says it in such a way that makes me seem like a lesser being.

The whole thing about him wanting people to come to him about his problems directly is straight up bullshit because I did that very thing and he basically went Lol well people need to get over it.

Well..I've spoken with Ponder a couple times
And I've noticed that when she does commentaries, she does what she can to detach herself from any and all personal issue she has with that person.
If she plans to commentate on them that is. Much like the Mathew Chester Productions video.

You seem like a very intelligent individual, Sketch. And I've seen how you just tear scripts apart. In many retrospect's and in your defense, you see things in a different light.
But maybe if you take a step back and see that not everyone thinks like you
Maybe you could reach people a bit better. I'm not going to lie when I say I'm afraid of you. I feel like if I talk to you you're going to snap at me and disregard what I have to say solely based off of that I just happen to disagree with you. And I don't want that.

I want to give the CC the benefit of the doubt. I don't know if Kung will listen to me or not. And I'll never know if I don't try a different approach. You say you've tried to help him and I believe you. But you're really aggressive. And such aggression may present itself with more aggression.

I don't expect you to listen to me. Hell, I'm just some stupid 18 year old who doesn't know how to function. And I guess I'm naive to think the way I do but I want to give everyone a chance to succeed. That's why I'm doing this.

Vii Omega 04/26/2018

Well I get where you're coming from but really this irrational fear that I'm going to snap over a difference of opinion is what made people kind think that I'm some kind of Boogie man trying to destroy everything that is laid in front of me when that's obviously not the case. Hell Jonah, Doodle, Megatron, NaiTaiDai, SonicTheDarkEX, Lucas C, A Koopa But Not A Troopa and even the ALT CC commentaries would blow that possible idea out of the water. However people tend to think that my irritation is anger when people have yet to see me actually angry.

The only times when I get angry is when people are blatantly lying or actually are being underhanded or perhaps homophobic as in Dabhdude's case. Actually to even go with an earlier point you made, I don't do things out of emotions nor anger typically. My comm on Frozen Angel proved that and hell out of the two people who were emotional about the entire thing, I was still indeed rational.

I do reach out to people and give them many chances. Dillin Thomas as my best example. Hell even Jonah has brought to me many scripts of his that I utterly tore apart and even though I also in the script make potshots and jokes people know that at the end of the day I don't mean any form of malice. The sex crazed M'urica Wabbit furry president of the cc is just the persona where I detached all of my own personal opinions from the character to try and debate things in what I hope is an objective light.

When it comes to cases like Kung however, I did try, I was kind, I gave him as many ideas as I could come up with at the time. Hell time to time he and I can be friendly. However as of recent I have taken much issue with his actions and time to time I feel the need to address it. If he was willing to admit he was wrong or if he showed actual signs of wanting to improve I'd be fine. I would be annoyed but it'd be fine.

What I am here to do is essentially make commentaries that I would want to see and by the looks of it people do tend to like my taste of entertainment. Yeah I can be harsh, and I can be a bit cruel however I feel that a hard truth is sometimes better then a sugar coated lie

Sure this is was before this document was starting but my point still stands. He's shown no sense of getting better and I officially am sick of him. He treats a starving dog like he treats a pedophile on To Catch A Predator. He has no respect for anyone because he's a self-centered brat who only debates to be right.
